

THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

With a population of more than 10 million people, the County of Los Angeles (County) has more residents than any county in the nation, and within its boundaries are 88 cities. It is rich in cultural diversity and home to world-renowned museums, theaters, the nation’s motion picture industry, major universities, and numerous five-star restaurants. The mountains, deserts, and the beautiful Pacific Ocean, along with some of the world’s finest urban recreational attractions, are freeway close.

The County is governed by a five-member Board of Supervisors who are elected on a non-partisan basis and serve four-year terms. As the governing body, the Board of Supervisors (Board) serves as both the executive and legislative authority of the largest and most complex county government in the United States. There are seven appointed positions (Auditor Controller, Chief Executive Officer, Chief Probation Officer, County Counsel, Director of Children and Family Services, Executive Officer of the Board of Supervisors, and Fire Chief) that report directly to the Board. The remaining 25 department heads report to the Chief Executive Officer. There are also three elected officials (Assessor, District Attorney, and Sheriff), for a total of thirty-five (35) major administrative units or departments that currently serve the needs of the County’s residents.

The County’s annual budget for fiscal year 2013-14 is $25 billion, with funding for approximately 100,000 positions to serve its diverse population.

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURAL COMMISSIONER/ WEIGHTS AND MEASURES
